Tiara

The dungeons beneath Tiara are closed until further notice.

Black Rock Clan: The Sovereignty of Cata. Reports King Arthur and his knights have ended the reign of Olwynn Gidotyut. A powerful barbarian chief of the evil goblin horde. The Clan was nearly massacred but it is rumored that his son survived.

Telerie: The first human bodies after the razing of the elf settlement in the Valley of the Telerie have been identified. It is Sasorlim. He was a resident of Iमारil. His legacy as a Scout (Holy Warrior) of Quitari has been entered into the great record. He was very old, a human over 100 years of age. All his riches were given away years ago and he leaves no heirs.

Celestial Choir: Rune Jayis the leader of this small group of Bards has returned after being missing for several months.

Crossroads: A visiting Holy Warrior of Allyra, Greenleaf Sinilnil, Emissary to the Fairy Council, was murdered in his sleep. The suspect Icabod Fraimd a Defender of the Curious apparently slew him. Greenleaf was a Hysbil, and will be returned to his homeland for burial. This after reports of a mysterious man apparently a Lord of Sin has been seen in the area.

Elf Lands: Jyn Ashblade a holy warrior of Tylora is still wanted for the theft of several artifacts stolen from the Temple Vaults in the City of Misty Vale. The reward has been increased to 5,000gc for his capture (Dead or alive)

The Tiara River Inn: In every respect her owner Zmine Dara has followed her vision and brought the Inn to reality. The river view and magical ambience make the visit great for romance or a private meeting. The food is very exotic and she claims it comes from another world. It is on the expensive side catering to the well to do of the city. The inn has already seen some of the city's finest, including our mayor Countessa De La Soule who said her meeting in the private bridge tower was one of a kind.

The Orphans: The adventuring party of Regnum Eon has been found alive, in NE Aviron. Their tale is a harrowing one. They are best known for slaying the vile Nightmare Beast, plaguing Northern Regnum Eon. The beast is said to be as big as a barn. All the members of the group sacrificed everything to save one of its members. It paid off, this time.

Call to Arms: The leadership of Solint in the Mineral Islands has put out a call of great rewards for those who help the king win back his country from the evil forces that now hold his capital. The Centaurs have recently pledged to his Banner and Lord Jokar has asked all Centaurs to join in the glorious fight.

Food (): The Tiara River Inn is a 5 star establishment. Its food is truly out of this world. Zmine and her brother are refugees from the world of Zephyr and have left their mark on this world and the city. We had a dish called Wasabi Noodle Surprise. This is my first time having this dish, it is so unique I can't compare it to anything else, it was unique and delicious.

Obits: Bargor Sepron, a wizard of Quitari has died in the Elf lands. He leaves his fortunes including his Helm of the Sea King to his granddaughter Breeanne Sepron.

To the Cat: We will have to play later I am busy elsewhere but will wait for you.
